CIRCULAR

The Competent Authority has noted that some of the Divisions are not taking seriously the urgency, importance and sensitivity of Parliament matters and not submitting replies to parliament questions on time bond manner. It is also noted that on many occasion due care is not given in furnishing relevant and complete information/reply on the question asked by Members of Parliament.

In view of above observations, PPA has instructed to all Divisional Heads and In-charges of sub-offices to give due care and top priority to parliament questions and reply should be submitted in time bond manner with complete information along with supporting documents if any:-
